

Barbara Helene Maco, MBA in Sustainable Management

Position in company: Associate of r3 environmental technology ltd. (in-house consultant)

Education

- MBA in Sustainability Management, Presidio Graduate School, SF, CA, USA. Focus on renewable energy, community resiliency, and sustainability project integration.
- B.A., University of California at Los Angeles (USA) in Conservation of Ecological Systems.

Key Areas of Expertise

Public/private partnerships to advance environmental sustainability and community resiliency. Sustainable remediation and redevelopment of impaired lands (including renewable energy, sustainable development, transportation, air and chemical management, and stakeholder engagement).

Recent Professional Experience

Sustainability Director, Wactor & Wick LLP, Oakland, CA, USA. (July, 2013 to present)
Support clients with projects for the cleanup and redevelopment of contaminated properties, including the deployment of renewable energy. Develop project plans and oversee implementation, including communications and liaison with regulators.

International Sustainable Remediation Forums. Scientific Committee member for the 3rd and 4th.
Developed and chaired a workshop on optimal ways to document and communicate the value of sustainable remediation to key stakeholders.

Membership of Professional Bodies

Vice-President, Sustainable Remediation Forum USA

Previous Employment

Nov. 2010- Jan. 2013: Manager, Greener Cleanup and Reuse at US EPA

Sept. 2008 – Sept. 2010: International Liaison for Sustainable Disaster Preparedness at U.S. NORTHERN COMMAND

Sept. 2003 – Sept. 2008: Coordinator for Environmental Justice and US-Mexico Border Stewardship and Emergency Preparedness at US EPA

March 1994 - July 2003: Environmental Consultant at Maco Environmental Consulting

Dec. 1980 - June 1994: Project Manager: Waste, and Air Quality Improvement at US EPA

Languages

English native speaker; fluent in Spanish; working knowledge of French.